Wavelengths (Savant Annual Anthology of Poetry Book 3)

One is the futile cautionary tale of a scientific report that explains the worst - while knowing the worst has only narrowly been averted - and the other is the immediate, crushing disquietude of watching things spiral out of your control, followed by the awful realization that humanity is so, so fallible and so, so mortal in the face of awesome cosmic forces we pretend to control.

Nietzsche: The Gay Science: With a Prelude in German Rhymes and an Appendix of Songs

While Rogers enjoyed film acting, his appearances in silent movies suffered from the obvious restrictions of silence, as he had gained his fame as a commentator on stage.
