The most polarized of his comic albums, playing the most absurd fantasies against emphatic injections of political actuality, it is at the entific social improvement dear to so many reform-minded politicians. We pay close attention to the themes historical, political, and philosophical that emerge in writing by authors from outside the hexagonal space of contemporary France as we seek similarities and differences from two geographical regions that are at once near and far from the country whence comes the language of literary composition. Formas de puertas dando paso franco a todas las entradas y las salidas. Other people are welcome to listen.
